GIFT OF GAB

Steve Keenen, better known as 'Crazy Steve', almost died when the semi (overloaded with Coke) he was driving, flipped over, covering the Ventura freeway with Coke. Spidey will be having another contest sometime in March. The 2nd Palmdale Ramp Contest was held on Keith Stephenson's ramp. 'O' moved to, and will be residing in England for good. What betty at Pipeline Skatepark taped Spidey and Tony Hawk's picture on her folder and bragged that she kissed them? Marci....? Grosso gets the boot from casa to casa, and gets a clean '73 squareback. Jeffs board must be selling well....? Eric Nash learned invert variials. Drugs suck, people that do them suck. Street skating might be outlawed in California once again....does this mean skateparks again? John Lucero is lost somewhere up north and hasn't been seen or heard from. Bullet wheels are out finally....took 2 years! Fuck skinheads and trends! Santa Cruz Skateboards has their own 24 page, full color skateboard magazine out now. Spidy and the Rotters don't exist, they never did. Jeff Mead and Eric Nash both have new layers of masonite on their ramps.

QUOTES

"People that live in L.A. are the best! People that come to L.A. try to make it something. A case in point....Britt Parrot. If he ever comes to any of our ramps he will die! He will never get a foot on it!" -'Crazy Steve' Keenen
"You look like Kevin Stabb." -April Hoffman (Ya Right!)
"Somethings going to happen to your sister when she gets older, she's going to turn psycho or something, I can just sense it." -Jeff Croteau
"It had to be Rob, I just knew it. Everytime Rob is around something always happens. He's a omen. -'O'

Phils Ramp is being sessioned heavily. Lance got a new layer of masonite on his ramp. Jeff Mead has a killer ramp but it is hardly sessioned because he is never home, and when he is you have to go through all this bullshit. The Steps have their new debut 7" out. Mad Parade will have a 7" out in April, buy it! Members of Incomplete Monday have a killer LP out, buy it! 'O' is back from England and nowhere to be found. a new band called....? 'O' is back from England and nowhere to be found. Ronnies have had some good shows. Recent bands to play there include Legal Weapon, Black Flag, T.S.O.L., J.A.T., Incomplete Monday, The Hags, etc. If you missed the WEIRDOS show, you missed out on a killer show.

INTERVIEW

Rick 'Spidey' DEMONTROND

Rick Demontrond, a.k.a. "Spidey", as he is known to his counterparts, resides in friendly El Monte, end of the Santa Fe Trail. Situated in his backyard beside an abandoned chicken coop, stands a splintered halfpipe, where four contests have been held.

Spidey is one of many talents. He can be seen on any given day shredding the local skatespots with his stylish moves, just having fun at what he likes to do.

HOW OLD ARE YOU?

My age at the present moment is 18, 11 months, and a couple days.

HOW DID YOU ACQUIRE THE NAME SPIDY?

John Lucero and Neil Blender gave it to me in the summer of '81, because of the way I looked and am.

WHEN DID YOU START SKATING?

At the ripe age of about 7 years old I wanted a skateboard. So I got one when I was 8.

WHAT WAS YOUR FIRST SKATEBOARD?

It was an Infinity. An Infinity Sureflexy Skateboard. I got it at the Infinity Surfshop off P.C.H. in Huntington Beach.

HOW DID YOU GET YOUR FIRST SPONSOR?

I was skating under the pier at the age of 9. The time was about '76. I was spinning some 360's. We were riding this hill called Hamburger Hill. It's a bank that's chained up now under the Huntington Beach pier. And this guy gave me some trucks, and somehow I got on ProAm Skateboards. That was my first sponsorship.

WHAT SPONSORS HAVE YOU HAD?

I went through many, but now I'm on Santa Cruz, Independent, and I ride for Go Skate Skateshop, Quiksilver, and Vaurnet.

DO YOUR SPONSORS TREAT YOU WELL?

Santa Cruz treats me like shit right now, their really shitty. They don't treat their riders that well. Indy's good to me, Quiksilver is probably my best sponsor (a clothing sponsor) and Vaurnet's alright.

WHEN IS YOUR BOARD SUPPOSED TO BE OUT?

It's supposed to come out the end of November and before Christmas. But we'll see, because Santa Cruz is real slow on stuff like that.

WHAT ABOUT CONTESTS?

Contests are fun.

WHAT WAS THE FIRST CONTEST YOU ENTERED?

A city contest at the Southern California Edison Park in Huntington Beach. It's a little obstacle course with these cones and little hoops to go through. And your on your little board with loose bearing wheels. It was kind of fun. I got like a third and a first, or something like that in freestyle.

Former AHS Graduate Skateboarding In Europe

By LIZ FERNANDEZ
Special Correspondent

Rick DeMontand, 1984 Arroyo graduate, skateboarded through ten European countries this summer.

To be sent to Europe Rick had to first make a proposal to his sponsors. Santa Cruz Skateboards, Independent Trucks, Quiksilver Clothing, and Converse Shoes. He had to show them how they would profit by sending him. This he would do by wearing and using their products exclusively.

After this was done he was on his way. The sponsors paid for his travel and expenses. They also gave him 650 touring stickers for Rick to give away. "People made offers to stay at the houses," said Rick. "It was also much more comfortable."

Skateboarding is treated differently in Europe. "It is like basketball in here," so Rick was treated like a celebrity. And as a celebrity, he was being followed, so it was much easier for him to stay as a guest with a family.

In Germany, he was interviewed for television. He thought, "German people are pretty funny because every time they ask a serious question they smile and laugh." Rick has also been featured in many magazines, "Teenworld," "Skateboarder," "Action Now," and two European ones, "Monster Mag," and was on the cover of U.S.A. (English Skateboarder). Rick has been skating since 1974, but he isn't considering it as a career.

and made business cards. During his four years at Arroyo he feels he made "A bit here and there," about $350.00.

As for his future, he plans to start school in February and take general education and decide on his major from there. He will also be working with Santa Cruz Skateboards putting together a newsletter. And either leave this July for a four month tour of the United States or Sweden.

The countries Rick visited were England, Holland, Sweden, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Austria, France, Greece, and Switzerland.

"It was funny it's like the eagle has landed, some kids heads would have gotten so big, it wouldn't fit in the suitcase so bring it home with them, you can't let it go to your head. You're there to have fun."

WHERE HAVE YOU TRAVELED?

I've been to the east coast, all over California, Europe, and Canada.

WHAT COUNTRIES HAVE YOU TRAVELED TO?

DO YOU LIKE THE BEST?

England, London, and Greece.

GREECE? WHY DO YOU LIKE GREECE?

Because there is no other place like it that I've ever been.

WHAT ABOUT EUROPE?

Europe's a bad place. Every country is so different.

ARE THERE ANY SKATEPARKS IN EUROPE?

Skateparks? They don't have those there. They had some in England, but their bad. Made bad, shitty ass fault, tight ass transitions. Really bad things.

WHAT SKATEPARKS HAVE YOU SKATED?

Too many.

WHAT SKATEPARKS WERE THE BEST THAT YOU SKATED?

SkateCity, Marina, Colton, and Big Z.

WHAT IS THE BEST PLACE THAT YOU'VE EVER SKATED?

SkateCity, Marina skatepark, and a ramp in Konstanz, Germany.

WHY DID YOU LIKE SKATECITY?

Whittier SkateCity was like my bedroom, it was the best place. That's all that needs to be said.

WHO DID YOU MEET AT SKATECITY?

I met Neil Blender there. I met Crazy Steve Keenen. But he's Steve now because he's not so crazy anymore. I met Jeff Grosso there, Eric Nash, Lance, this guy named Laycup. I kinda meet a lot of people there.

HOW DID YOU MEET 'O'?

'O' came down with Jeff Grosso to my ramp to skate one day. (On a rainy day) He slipped, slammed and fell on his thumb. Then I met 'O'.

DOES 'O' STILL SKATE?

He skates. I don't know. He has these head trips where he doesn't want to ride and stuff because he is into superstitions and shit. I think it's a load of crap, but he'll skate again.

DOES 'O' SHREAD?

For somebody as big as he is, the shit he's been through, the guy tears.

WHY DOESN'T 'O' LIKE HAVING HIS PICTURE TAKEN?

I can understand the reasons why. It has something to do with like an ancient Indian belief, that when someone takes your picture, they take a part of your soul. I guess that if you believe that, then it's true. It becomes a reality.

WHAT ABOUT SKATEZINES?

Skatezines are the raddest thing because it's like uncontrolled by any force. Which means like government, ideas, etc. It's the persons own idea. It's what they thought went into it. It's either you can pick it up and like it, or you can say 'Fuck You' and at the same time the guy is saying 'Fuck You To' with his skatezine. He doesn't have to kiss your ass, you don't have to kiss theirs. It's just a good thing you know. It's like free thoughts. It's what America was based on.

WHAT ABOUT THE SKATE SCENE NOW?

It's getting to be a kinda big thing isn't it? It's alot of fashion in skateboarding now. It's kinda lame, there's alot of big ego's too. It's getting out of hand, but it'll level off soon. I hope it levels off at a high point and doesn't go down again. Because skating is kind of a fun thing. It's good for people. But there's some people who just get big heads and loose it all.

WHAT'S IN THE FUTURE FOR SKATEBOARDING?

Big bucks, a bunch of television bullshit, high contracts, arguments, huge ego's, and skateparks.

THE SKATE SCENE IS PRETTY BIG IN OUR AREA.

There's not too many people who skate around here, it's not even a handful. It's like if there is they all felt into my fingers. But it's pretty good. Lance, people around here, Jeff. It's all we got, so we ride.

WHEN DID YOU TURN PRO?

I turned pro at the Capitola streetstyle.

DID YOU PLACE AT CAPITOLA?

I got tenth. I missed the cut by about two.

FROM NOW ON, THE SPIDEY WILL BE COMPETING WITH THE PRO'S.

Yes, the skateboarding season is like almost over, or so they say. I don't know when the next contest is. I'll go to it if Santa Cruz sends me. If they don't that's o.k. man, I'll play my guitar.

DO YOUR SPONSORS TREAT YOU WELL SINCE YOU TURNED PRO?

Santa Cruz is kind of shitty man. They put to much time into Rob Roskopp. I understand he sells alot of boards and stuff, but they are never giving me a chance. I think I can outsell Rob.

WHO ARE YOUR FAVORITE SKATERS?

My favorite skaters are either dead or gone. I liked Steve Olson cause he had a hot style, Bowman, Ray Bones, and Albe.

WHAT ABOUT DUANE PETERS?

Duane was one of the raddest guys because he did anything he wanted to. The good skaters nowadays, right now that are happening, are Lance, Stevie and Jeff Grosso.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE BESIDES SKATING?

I like artwork.

DO YOU SURF?

I surf. Surfing's fun if you have the equipment, time and gas money.

HOW ABOUT PHOTOGRAPHY?

Photography is a rad thing. But see that takes money again. There's one thing about skateboarding, that's cash. Cash is my main thing. Money is a good thing because it helps get things going in this world.

CASH IS YOUR MAIN THING?

Money is the best thing because it can buy things. But it's a funny thing to feel about money. If there wasn't a gold standard and we didn't need money, then I wouldn't give a shit. But it's because the way our system and society is based. Money is the main objective for alot of things. That's all there is to it. It's the bare reality of it all.

DO YOU STILL SILKSCREEN T-SHIRTS, ETC. I TAKE IT THAT YOU LIKE GRAPHIC ARTS?

Yes, Graphic Arts is a good thing but that little question of money has to pop in. You can make money off doing it, but you need money to get it going.

WHAT ABOUT WOMEN?

Women? Women are like cookies. There on the shelf, right. If you want to know what there made of, you can try and buy one. You can feel the chips and stuff, but they crumble and they go away. More are made, and they go back on the shelves. I don't know. I don't really think too much about women. I just think about getting money, getting gas, going skating, what I'm going to do. I like traveling. That's my main thing. Go places and travel. I like reading too. Women are there. If you want em you can either kiss ass to them, or find one who's really cool. That's kind of a hard chore, so I dare not try it.

NOW THAT YOU'VE GOT A CAR, DO YOU LIKE DRIVING?

It's o.k. Faster way to get somewhere.

DO YOU WATCH T.V.?

T.V.'s a load of shit or they wouldn't of come out with video players, little disks, cable T.V. and stuff. Cause it's just a bunch of crap. It's a sham to, buying all that other equipment that their putting out.

MUSICWISE, WHO ARE SOME OF YOUR FAVORITE BANDS?

SOME of my favorite bands range from many things from Aerosmith. Sex Pistols is my favorite. And it could be U2, or the Cure, or anything like that. Even Bowles kind of a good thing.

YOU PLAY THE GUITAR QUITE A BIT.

Yes, I can play alot of stuff on my guitar. The guitar has alot of capabilities. It's like one of my favorite things next to skateboarding.

DO YOU HAVE PLANS FOR THE FUTURE?

I hope to make it as a model. Have a modeling career and just make money. Build a music studio, so I can play music. I'll still skate but I'll probably somehow slip away out of the skatescene long enough to know that I wasn't there. But I'll still skate no matter what.

ANY LAST COMMENTS?

Ride, have fun, do what you think is right for yourself not others, skate safe!

Dear Applicant;

Thank you for your inquiry and interest in becoming a member of the MADRID Team.

Enclosed you will find an application that needs to be completed and returned to our office. The application is fairly self explanatory with a need for a parental consent signature in order to become a member of the MADRID Team.

In addition to the application qualification section, we would like some information on all contest results, how long you have been skating and some action photographs. You may also send letters of recommendation from any current members of the MADRID Team if you desire.

We are now making it a requirement that we be given an official report on your grade point average. As a member of the MADRID Team, it will be required that you maintain at least a 2.5 (C) G.P.A. at all times. This shall be given quarterly. If your G.P.A. falls below a 2.5 after your acceptance on the team, it will be necessary to suspend the sponsorship until the G.P.A. has been brought back to a 2.5 average.

As soon as your application has been received, we will review it along with many others and eventually give you a response as to whether you have or have not been accepted to represent MADRID SKATEBOARDS.

Sincerely

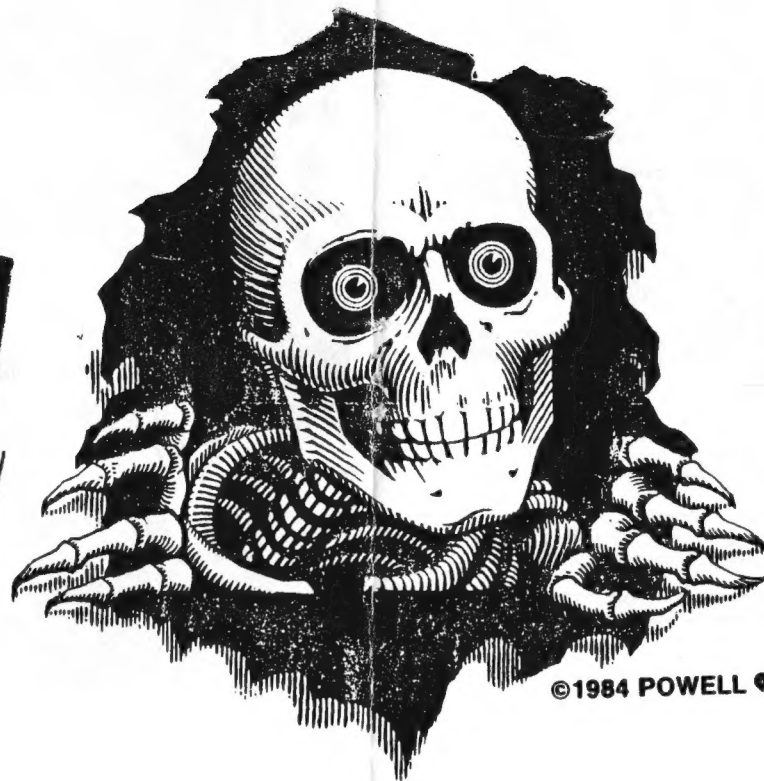

Jeff Madrid/ Jerry Madrid

ERIC Castro

Interview

- When did you start skating?
I got a Lightning Bolt board in 4th grade. I skated the curb out in front of my house until my sister called me Waddloops.
- I see that you will be moving soon.
I've lived here my whole life. My parents are selling this house and I think were moving to Arcadia. The city of people who are turning pink.
- Tell us about your car.
The Germans, Kellogg and Frank, came to America to try and find a car, and found a Honda for $800. They were leaving to Germany and I ended up buying it for $450. We used the car for a street car, doing flips off it, denting it, and spray painting it. Pink Grosso is to blame for the spray paint. Then we painted it green. (only half of it)
- Where do you like to skate?
3rd street is the raddest place to skate. You can carve and cruise. I like Lances. Phils my bro, I like skating there.
- What are favorite tricks?
(Steve: Inverts.)
I like inverts and grinds.
- Who are your favorite skaters?
My favorite skater is Lance. I like to watch Spidey flip out.
- Have you ever entered any contests?
I entered Arkansas and got like 15th or something. I got 6th at the pipe contest in Upland.
- Where do you work?
I help everyone at Target. I put up displays, stock, and show people where the maxipads are.

Anything else?

I had this dream that Santa Cruz had some ads in Playboy. And Lance had a picture in there snowboarding.

You like to play the guitar?

I like trying to play drums. I like playing the guitar ever since I stole my sisters acoustic guitar.

What skatepark that you rode, did you like the best?

Whittier was the only skatepark made for skating. It was the raddest. Everything was so fun. (Steve: It was the only skatepark made for skating. Winchester, etc., none of them even came close. They all should've been torn down.)

You think the rest of the skateparks should be torn down?

(Steve: Yes, 2 of them.)

What's your favorite food?

My favorite food is funnel cake. (Steve: You liar.)

(Spidey: It's called indian fry bread. You can get it at Knott's Berry Farm.) See Steve, Spidey even said so.

Tell us more about yourself Eric.

(Spidey: He likes wearing vans and mismatches his socks.) (Steve: Eric can't swim, but he rollerskates. He rips at rollerskating.) I don't believe in yardwork. I can't swim. I'm fat, I weigh a hefty 125 lbs. I'm 5'8", but I'm getting tall right now. El Monte is a bad place to live. I would like to get rid of the common bacteria.

What bands do you like?

I like bands that complain. I like the Misfits, Stiff Little Fingers, there are a lot of bands. I like listening to Spidey play leads.

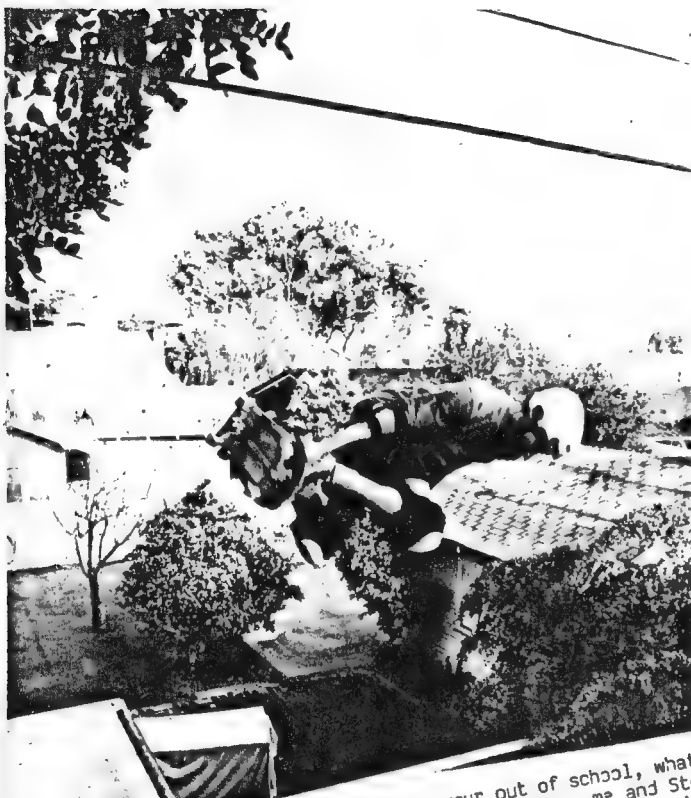

Tell us something rad.

The death pickle is the hottest item in my room. One day while Lance was gaining weight by eating my McDonalds Quarterpounder, he threw the pickle on my wall just below the ceiling. That was 3 years ago. It remains in place to this day.

How old are you?

I'm 18.

ERIC CASTRO AT PHIL'S RAMP

Now that your out of school, what else do you do?
In my spare time, me and Steve play in my room.
(Steve: With flies.) I go in the hot tub. We watch skate videos all the time. I support many skaters including Jeff Grosso. (Steve: You fool you could of spent that money on yourself. Just think you could've had Pioneer Chicken for 2 weeks.)

Do you have any plans now that your out of school?
I want money to go to Europe and yell with Mark Abrook. (Steve: He spends all his money at Pioneer.
He will never go.) I want to get married when I get back. (Steve: You don't want to get married.) (Spidey: Ya, he's a Lance clone. He want's to get married like Lance and Evette.) (Steve: He has the Lance Mountain loose wrist look when he rides.)

What is your true hair color?
Black. (Steve: Bullshit Eric your full of lies.
It's dark brown.) (Spidey: It's like cotton candy.)
(Steve: It's like Lances, like hay.) (Spidey: Ya, it's like hay.)

So tell us about women?
The rad girls want to be my friends, and the lame ones are lame.

Do you have any pets?
I have a gray cat that will drink your shirt if it likes you. My dog, Noel, has been on the bottom of 3 of my boards. One that Lance rode in the Del Mar contest.

What the raddest thing you've done?
Watching Keenen click on Corey O'Brien, after Corey spent all his money on Cokes in Arkansas.

YOU'LL BE AMAZED  HOW MUCH YOU MISSED AS A KID!

If you listen to these, your stoked! If not, thats o.k.
